MUD RUNNERS AT LATONIA

UNEXPECTED CHANGE IN TRACK CONDITIONS WORKS WELL FOR THE FAVORITES.

Converse Gets the Best of Dr. Carmen Wins Applause for Herself and Her Rider Col. McNab Takes a Race.

Ciacinnati, Ohio, October 14.—Mud racing was the order this afternoon at the Latonia track, a hard rain this morning continuing until post time and changing the going. As a result of the adverse weather conditions there was a slight falling off in attendance, but not to the extent that was expected. The betting also held up in remarkably good fashion and, as six of the seven favorites were successful, most of the spectators had a profitable day.

good Tashion and, as six of the seven favorites were successful, most of the spectators had a profitable day.

Spirited racing was again the rule, the handicap for all ages at three-quarters being particularly notable, not alone because of the stirring finish that it produced between Converse and Dr. Carmen, but also from the fact that the race was run in 1:13% in the muddy golfig.

The mile and seventy yards race, in which Hanovia, Fleetabelle and Grumpy were the sole contestants, carried with it the outstanding incident of the afternoon's racing, due to Hanovia being practically left at the post and coming on to wear fleetabelle down for the purse in the last seventy yards. The filly and rider were given a big ovation on their return to the stand.

The success of the favorites began in the opener, when Col. McNab, which in his previous start suffered disqualification, just managed to outstay Sansyming, which was coupled with Combey as the Jefferson Livingston entry. Col. McNab had to be urged hard to last it out. Capt. Rees was an intended good thing in the race, but he cleerly evinced a displike for the soft going. John W. Klein stumbled and unscated jockey Hanover shortly after the start. Hanover escaped injury and piloted Nobleman, the favorite and winner of the second race. Zin Delofiered Nobleman strong contention and it was only in the last sixteenth that she could be shaken off. The going was exactly to the liking of Mary H. and the led for the entire way in the fifth, but she had to do her best to outstay Blue Cap and Little Eigger.

Mose Goldblatt will take Iron Mask to Juarez for Jefferson Livingston. The high altitude there it is thought will be beneficial to Iron Mask.

G. R. Senn, J. M. and L. J. Brown, J. F. Gaffneff, W. Martin, J. M. Goode, J. H. Stamper and G. C. Hughes will ship to New Orleans at the close of racing here.

William Gerst's stable, which will be disposed of by auction here next week, made it a double for the afternoon by the victories of Converse and St. Charlcote. The latter was so lightly regarded in a betting way that he was grouped with others in the field. He got up in the last stride to beat White Crown.

the field. He got up in the last stride to beat White Crown.

R. L. Baker's horses will be shipped to Lexington at the close of racing here and will be later transferred to New Orleans for the racing there.

The extensive John W. Schorr string will be sent to Louisville from here and after a brief stay will be transferred with his other horses to New Orlean'. It is Mr. Schorr's present intention to race twenty-four horses this winter, Jefferson Livingston will arrive tomorrow to discuss with trainer H. R. Brandt winter racing plans. He will send a division of his stable to New Orleans.

Well-Known Jockey Never Recovers Consciousness

TWENTY LEADING AMERICAN SIRES OF THE PRESENT YEAR

The racing of the month of September had the result of advancing Broomstick to first place in the sire list of 1915 and at the end of the month he was nearly $10,000 in front of Star Shoot. It thus appears that the fine son of Ben Brush and Elf is destined to figure as the premier sire of North America for the third year in succession, a distinction achieved by no stallion since Hanover led for four years, beginning with 1895. His trio of best winners, Thunderer, Regret and Bromo, have closed their accounts for this year, but Broomstick has other winning sons and daughters in active racing probably capable of maintaining his supremacy to the end of the year.

Star Shoot has much the greatest family running for him, seventy-one of his progeny having won more or less for him in this year's racing. It is well that it is so and it is probable his many daughters will play a big part as broodmares of the future. His best winner this year is the two-year-old Ting-a-Ling, for which no great things can be claimed. If something like Star Charter, for instance, should crop up in next year's racing, Star Shoot might himself again go to the head of affairs. At any rate he has already played a big part in our breeding and racing and through him the blood of Isinglass is well diffused in this country. In money won he is practically as far in front of Ogden as Broomstick is in front of him. Quite probably the three leaders of the present will not be disturbed in the placings.

In The Finn, Star Jasmine and Tartar Ogden had three excellent representatives, The Finn being clearly one of the front rank three-year-olds of the year. Gillies and Sir Vivian are also probably something more than useful two-year-olds, although we will have to look to England next year for confirmation of this, so far as Sir Vivian is concerned. Peep o'Day is next to Star Shoot in the number of his progeny in racing, having sixty money winners in action this year. Of these Phosphor was undoubtedly one of the feetest sprinters of the year, but was hurt a Death was directly due to a blow at the base of the brain, which also fractured the skull. Every means was resorted to to save the life of the jockey. Three doctors were constantly in attendance on him and Manager Hachmeister of the Latonia track and the rider's contract employer, E. R. From the ontset there was a grave doubt as to his ability to pull through, but there was more optimism among the doctors yesterday when the boy showed a stronger pulse and a decrease in fever. When he took a turn for the worse later, all the members of his family were sent for and they were at his bedside when death came. Increasing weight several years ago caused him to announce his retirement from the saddle, but he was prevailed on to return again and has during the last three years been under contract to E. R. He showed brilliant riding form and, although confining his efforts principally to the middle west, he placed many stake victories to his credit. His most recent stake victory of note was this year's Latonia Derby, which he won on Jefferson Livingston's Royal II. Ganz leaves four brothers, two of whom are well-known riders, though few of the public will recognize in koscoe Goose and W. Goose, close relationship. LAUREL TRACK IS SPOILED

RAIN COMES AND GIVES THE MUD RUNNERS ANOTHER CHANCE TO SHINE.

The Finn Runs a Good Race and Takes the Ellicott City Handicap—George Smith Sold to John Sanford for a Big Price.

Laurel, Md., October 14.—Just when the track at Laurel Park had become fast rain fell again, which made the going sloppy for today's racing. Indications point to more rain, which means that mud runners probably will have further opportunity of showing their merit. Today's feature, the Ellicott City Handicap, furnished a spleadid contest, in which The Finn came frome behind and, overcoming interference in the homestretch, got up in time to beat Distant Shore by a head in the final strides. Distant Shore, showing a keen turn of speed, dashed to the front at the start and set a fast pace all the way.

In the opener Eddie T., was bid up $205 over his entered price of $600 by Sam Louis and was bought in. H. G. Bedwell then claimed Dr. Gremer which finished second for $800.

Capt., Duhaine, of the Pinkerton forces arrested a ticket forger at the Laurel track yesterday. He gave the name of E. C. Jones and claimed Rockaway, N. Y., as his home. It is alleged that Jones forged a ticket on Scaramouch by cutting out the final number from another ticket which corresponded with the number of the Scaramouch ticket and inserting it in the latter. The forged ticke, called for $8.40. It was quickly discovered and just two minutes after it was cashed Capt. Duhaine had the man in custody. Jones will be tried at Arlington.

George Odom announced that he will join the owners shipping from here to Juarez. His string had the man in custody. Jones will be tried at Arlington.

George Odom announced that he will join the owners shipping from here to Juarez. His string will include, besides Carlaverock and Stellarina, six of the seventeen yearlings he has at Belmont Park. Manager M. J. Winn announced that in all about seventy-five horses would be shipped from here to Juarez and that the prospects for a most successful meeting there appear exceedingly bright. Yesterday he received word from Montreal that several stables would ship from there direct to Juarez. Among them are those of Hugh McCarren and Tom Green.

Jack McDonald was an arrival from Lexington, where he went to attend the grand circuit meeting. McDonald will take in the meeting at Havana next winter.

Jockey Clarence Turner will winter in Washington, He will look after the horses that Dr. J. S. Tyree will winter at Benning. Dr. Larrick will take six of the Tyree yearlings to New Orleans. He will also take the apprentice rider, McKenzle, south with him.

Tyree will winter at Benning. Dr. Larrick will take six of the Tyree yearlings to New Orleans. He will also take the apprentice rider, McKenzie, south with him.

Wanda Pitzer, which was claimed by Emil Herz yesterday, is again back in the J. S. Ownbey stable. The latter repurchased the mare last night.

Frank M. Taylor, who left New York for Havana a couple of weeks ago to take up the horses Calethumpian, Eustice Maid. Electrician and several yearlings, writes that his horses are doing well. Among other things Mr. Taylor says as follows:

"I have my horses at the track every day and they are doing finely. The weather is warm, but there is always a breeze blowing in from the ocean. H. D. Brown arrived about ten days ago and is looking after the many improvements that are being made, He is having the enclosure for the mutuel machines enlarged and is widening the automobile entrance. A great many trees have been put in and a number of flower beds laid out. A macadamized road has been built through the infield from the paddock to the stables. A board about a foot wide has been placed at the bottom of the inside rail all around the track and about two feet of the adobe soil has been scraped off the track and a coating of sand twelve inches deep spread in its place. The roads about the stables have been graded and all the drains have been deepened and widened. The Havana Electric railroad, which runs in the rear of the track, has laid a spur direct to the grandstand, which will make three trolley roads running from the city to the course. The Cubans are all anxions for the meeting to begin and all indications are that the race meeting will be a big thing down here next winter."

Edward McBride today sold the good two-year-old George Smith to John Sanford, the New York sportsman and breeder. The handsome black son of Out of Reach and Consue of its Raratoga that he was beaten. Recently he has shown a return to good form and the sale was consummated after a fast work that trainer Shannon sent the colt yesterday morning.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. T. S., Chicago. The sum due was $5.80.

G. T., Chillicothe, O. The sum due was $38.65. H. A. B., St. Louis, Mo. Under the circumstances it was a losing transaction.

L. L., Cincinnati, O. Have no record of a two-year-old filly by Dick Welles—Red Shawl, named Silvia.

L. R. F., Jacksonville, Fla. In mutuels when a field horse wins straight, place or show, the other field horses also win accordingly.

M. F. M., Chicago. Mars Cassidy never officiated as starter at the Mineral Springs track. Dick Dwyer had that unprofitable job all to himself.

H. L. D. M., Indianapolis, Ind. In a parlay there must be action in the case of each horse named and a limit has no bearing on the matter.

named and a limit has no bearing on the matter.

W. J. D., Owosso, Mich. Makaland is a bay horse foaled in 1897, by Hanover—Astrakhan; Kitty C. a bay mare foaled in 1883, by Longfellow—La Galatea.

W. E. H., Chicago. In the World's Fair Handicap at St. Louis, June 25, 1904. Colonial Girl opened at 4 to 1 in the betting and closed at 5 straight, 2 place and 1 show.

J. J. F., Louisville, Ky. Things dependant on the running of a race are not decided until the judges make their final placing and declare the result officially. It thus follows that Marse Henry was last in the race in which he was disqualified and Milestone was first. The deduction is obvious, A disqualification is as much incidental to and a part of a race as would be the falling of a horse in the race.

Evidently it was not without good reason that king George's trainer refused to give up faith in the three-year-old Friar Marcus, in spite of the many failures this year of the champion of last year. After repeated disappointments the son of Cicero succeeded near the close of the racing season in defeating all opposition in the Great Eastern Handleap at the Newmarket first October meeting, September 30. This was a three-quarters dash, worth $3,075, and had a good field of eighteen starters. Friar Marcus carried 108 "ounds, and won like a good horse, as he came from behind after a hard race and beat the three-year-old Wormleighton a long head. He was giving ten pounds to the second and fifteen to the third horse, the four-year-old Dolabella. The time was 1:133½, and Friar Marcus was a 10 to 1 chance. This was not only the first victory for the king's colors all year, though his horses have run many races, and have frequently been placed. Welles .. 51 29 81 Totals (20) $34,359 Water Welles . Coe, who races under the name of the Shoshone Stable, evidently is determined to get together a first-class stable. He has had hard luck in purchasing high-class two-year-olds in this country, both Hauberk and White Hackle having gone wrong soon after he bought them at fancy figures. A cablegram received from England Tuesday put an end to the hope he had of purchasing My Ronald, one of the best three-year-olds racing abroad, whose winnings have done much to make his sire the leading contender in England with Plymelus for the stallion honors. Mr. Coe had agreed to purchase My Ronald for $37,500 and the deal was made subject to a veterinary inspection. The cable received Tuesday stated that the veterinarian had made an adverse report on My Ronald, so the crack thoroughbred will not come to this country. 1,397 1,345 1,335 1,185 1,110 1,102 1,035 955 950 920 800 805 800 765 720 (1900), by Sainfoin—Roque Age.
